

Papers presented at the L/UMIN Lund Symposium, 6-7 October 2014 (in order of appearance)

Bas Schotel (UvA): 'Asylum, Exile and Refuge: A historical exploration into the conditions for legal legal protection of refugees'

Martin Ratcovich, (Stockholm U): 'The Notion of "Place of Safety": Yet another Self-Contained Maritime Rule or a Sustainable Solution to the Controversial Question of Where to Disembark Migrants Rescued at Sea?'

Elsbeth Guild (Queen Mary): 'Foreigners' Right to Respect for Privacy'

Laura Tarvainen (U of Lapland): Construction of vulnerability in practice: on what is written. Pilot study of ten asylum case files

Maria Bexelius (Uppsala U): 'Refugee Law and the Politics of Inequality'

James Hathaway (U Michigan): 'When is a Risk for Reasons of "Political Opinion"?''

Hanna Wikström (Uppsala U): 'Assessment Beyond Legal Guidance. Research on Adjudicator's Reasoning on Genuineness, Religion and Sexuality in Asylum Cases'

Leif Dahlberg (RCT Stockholm): 'The Story of David Oluwale. Caryl Phillips' Polyvocal Elegy'

Anna Bruce (Lund U): 'The implications of the CRPD for the asylum determination procedure'

Mariagiulia Giuffre (Edge Hill U): 'Undesirable and Unreturnable? Diplomatic Assurances in Context'

Rosemary Byrne (Trinity College Dublin): 'The Protection Paradox: Shouldn't the arrival of new media have transformed refugee status determination?'

Julian Lehmann (GPPI Berlin): 'Actors of Protection and Internal Flight in EU Asylum Law: An Unholy Alliance'

Eleni Karageorgiou (Lund U): 'Solidarity in European Asylum Law and Policies: A Scelleian Approach'

Vladislava Stoyanova (Lund U): 'The positive obligation of adopting effective regulatory framework for protecting migrants.'

Maarten den Heijer (UvA): 'When refugee status ends. On the clash between cessation and integration in refugee law and practice'

Isabelle Swerissen (UvA): 'Ties that Bind (or Not): Legal Relevance of Refugee Ties in the Context of Allocation of Responsibility'

Lisa Kerker (Lund U): 'Family migration and gender-based violence: Swedish case-law and its implications. A starting point for analysis'

Lena Wahlberg (Lund U): 'When to Trust the Scientific Expert'

Matthew Scott (Lund U): 'Developing protection from disaster-related harm in an era of climate change: practitioner perspectives on strategic litigation'

Gregor Noll (Lund U): 'Junk Science and the Law: Radiological Age Assessment of Unaccompanied Minors'